

Leaving a mark on your heart

Last week, we asked our readers: What is your earliest childhood memory? From the days spent with grandpa to learning an instrument or playing a sport, here are our favourite answers

5 When I was two years old, I got a toy fish, and I pretended to cook it for my dad. He took the fish and said gently, "Thank you, my dear". That was the first time I heard someone say "Thank you", and it gave me a warm feeling. Since then, I have learned to say "Thank you" when someone does something for me or offers me things, such as a gift or food.
